We can get on  of everything but we seem to be en  ed. Maybe we should just  Christmas. Mum hasn't even got a   yet. Why are we so  ble, trying to buy presents for people when we don't have the   (sorry - bit obscure but think about it!) of what they like.

Oh  I can't sit on the  any more. If I can just  ing my mind I'm sure I can think of something and then I will  into action and our Christmas won't be  (or  ) ed.

Santa, I hope you can help.

Jimmy
